STAT 8. [] Joe Ray, in the Bureau of the Budget, called concerning S.199, to establish a Freedom Commission. He asked if we were preparing a report. I told him that we were not and would prefer not to. He indicated that they are approving several adverse reports and simply wanted to check with us to ascertain that our position would not be inconsistent. I assured him that this was the case. STAT

STAT 9. [] Mr. Russ Blandford, House Armed Services Committee staff, called on the [] column of yesterday stating he had been receiving numerous calls from the press. He wished assurance that the thrust of the article was inaccurate. I assured him that this was so and that we would fill in the Subcommittee on this tomorrow. STAT

STAT 10. [] Following the Director's briefing of the House Banking and Currency Committee, I contacted Dr. Paul Nelson, Staff Director, and expressed to him the Director's personal appreciation for his cooperation and assistance in connection with this morning's briefing. Nelson said he thought the briefing went extremely well. STAT

STAT 11. [] Talked with Richard Cook, Minority Clerk, Ashley Subcommittee of House Banking and Currency Committee, and thanked him for his assistance in our preparation for the Director's appearance before the full Committee. STAT

STAT 12. [] In response to my prior invitation, Messrs. Darden and Woodruff said with regret that they would be unable to attend the TSD exposition tomorrow afternoon. Darden has hearings at that time and Woodruff has other commitments. Both felt that time factors would preclude any of their Subcommittee members from leaving the Hill at that time.
